

Whilst recognising that many people use email as a source of communication with other people, it can sometimes fail for a variety of reasons.

The introduction of the league website has proved extremely popular and opens another communication channel that is reliable & reaches a far wider audience than email alone would. For this reason, please make sure you check the league website on a regular basis for updates & news regarding the league.

We will of course continue using email as a communication medium.

Bristol NorthWest Skittles League Committee